

US Campaign to End the Israeli Occupation

We work to end U.S. support for Israel's 46-year occupation of the Palestinian West Bank, Gaza and East Jerusalem. We uphold equal rights for all.

December 13, 2013

Dear American Studies Association National Council,

We -- 150 organizations and 4,150 individuals around the U.S. and world -- wish to extend our deepest congratulations and full support for the ASA National Council's historic and principled decision to endorse and honor the Palestinian civil society call for the academic boycott of Israel. We realize that your decision was the result of a long consultation and we applaud you for listening to your members and the voices of those struggling against Israel's egregious violations of Palestinian rights.

We understand that in Israel, academia and the military are deeply intertwined. Settlements are designed in universities; some campuses are part of settlements; weapons used against Palestinian civilians are developed and tested by Israeli universities; no Israeli academic institution has ever issued a statement of condemnation of the state's policies denying Palestinian academics and others their basic freedoms and closing Palestinian universities for years on end. In short, Israeli academia has never been a catalyst for change; it is at the core of Israel's occupation and apartheid policies. This boycott is firmly institutional, not individual. We must refuse support for all institutions that downplay, whitewash, or contribute to Israel's criminal actions against Palestinians.

Your decision comes as we witness a larger, profound shift in the United States and worldwide toward increasing support for boycott, divestment, and sanctions against Israel. This resolution is consistent with a broader, historic commitment to using these time-honored tactics as a way to ensure freedom and justice for all people. We are confident that this resolution will be remembered as among the first of many future similar decisions by U.S. academic entities to come. We express our profound appreciation to you for this noble decision to stand bravely on the right side of history.

Sincerely,

The US Campaign to End the Israeli Occupation and...
